

THE FACES of travel

compiled by Diane ALT

WHAT IS ONE OF YOUR FAVORITE TRAVEL TIPS?

LAURA HERZBERG
GOING YOUR WAY TRAVEL

293-1050, WWW.GYWTRAVEL.COM

Pack lightly by choosing two basic colors to build your wardrobe around for mixing, matching and layering. Also, if you pack clothing you don't mind leaving behind after wearing, you'll create space for new purchases.

LORI COULTER
MACY'S AT CHESTERFIELD MALL

877-727-9879, WWW.LORICOULTER.COM

Pack six basic swimwear pieces to achieve a variety of looks, including a bikini top and bottom, tankini, one-piece swimsuit, skirt and long pareo. The key is to coordinate colors. The skirt can be worn anytime for a more casual look, while the pareo, when tied as a halter dress, is ideal for a poolside lunch date.

LYNNE PARRIOTT
PATTERING PAWS LLC

991-5322, WWW.PATTERINGPAWSLLC.COM

When making your initial travel plans, remember to reserve your pet's accommodations early. Always leave instructions for care and emergencies and ensure that you can extend your pet's stay if your return is delayed.

PHOTO BY JASON MUELLER